

WHEN THE TREES STOP GROWING

for the year is when a business like ours is going ahead fastest. Not a check, not a setback since April dried her tears and smiled a welcome.

New York never saw such Summer selling in Carpets and Groceries, in Silks and Women's Wear and half a dozen other stocks. And now the grand Fall movement is getting full headway.

FURNITURE

A full page of the paper wouldn't serve to tell all that's interesting in our September Furniture Sale. We don't try to tell it all—just hold up a few thoughts day by day and let you take the rest for granted.

Solid oak Chairs, leather seat, strong, well made and finished, $1.75.

Full box seat Chairs, antique oak, sole leather seat, heavy and well made, $2.25.

Antique oak Chairs, very handsome box frame, leather seat, the best chair in the market at $3.00.

Antique finish Extension Tables, very strong and durable, $5.

Antique finish Extension Tables, fine polish, heavy legs, $7.

Antique oak Extension Tables, polish finish, fancy base, carved legs, $9.

Antique oak Extension Tables, very heavy legs, fine base, extra finish, $12.

SILK UMBRELLAS

During the last two months we have gathered a wonderful range of silk Umbrellas. Fine English sticks, crook crook and golf hooks, umbrella frames close roll, with steel rods with wood rods, and as to the silk never so good, never so perfect.

Woven for the purpose. There are taffeta silks, pure twilled silks, Spitalfields silks—highest grade all. True $5 values, yet our price will be $2.50.

SUCCESSORS TO A. T. STEWART & CO.

A Cordial Invitation TO VISIT "The Linen Store"

is extended to all visitors to the city. An inspection of the comprehensive assortment of everything in linen for household use there displayed will doubtless prove profitable to those seeking thoroughly reliable housekeeping linens, and interesting to all who enjoy seeing the finest examples of the linen manufacturer's skill.

The collection includes, in addition to staple goods for general use, an unusually fine line of novel art fabrics for needlework, and specialties in articles for table decoration; also the newest patterns in pure linen handkerchiefs in great variety.
